SPEECH

OF Hon. S. A. DOUGLAS, In Opposition to the Report of the Conseience Committee.

Delivered in the United States Senate, April 29th.

MR. Douglas-Mr. President, I have carefully examined the bill reported by the Committee of Conference as a substitute for the House amendment to the Senate bill for the Admission of Kansas, with an anxious desire to find in it such provisions as would enable me to give it my support. I had hoped that after the disagreement of the two Houses upon this question, some plan, and reunite those who agree in principle and in political action on this great question, so as to take it out of Congress. I am not able, in the bill which is now under consideration, to find that opening of this session we were told that Kaner or undue influence on the other.

The question now arises, is there such a subit fairly within that principle? In terms, the constitution is not submitted at all; but yet we are told that it amounts to a submission, because there is a land grant attached to it, and they are permitted to vote for the land grant, or against the land grant; and, if they accept the land grant, then they are required to take the constitution with it; and, if they reject the land grant, it shall be held and deemed a decision against coming in one section, and submission in another section is not popular sovereignty.

bounty held out for coming in under the Lecompton constitution; but when the law gives them the six million acres in the event they take this constitution, and does not indicate what they are to have in the event they reject it, and wait until they can form another, I submit the question whether there is not an inducement, a bounty held out to influence these people to vote for this Lecompton constitution? It may be said that when they attain the ninetythree thousand population, or if they wait until after 1860, if they acquired the population required by the then ratio-which may be one hundred shall give then the same amount of land that is now given by this grant. That may be so, and may not be so. I believe it will be so; and yet in the House bill, for which this is a substitute, the provision was that they should have this same amount of land, whether they came in under the Lecompton constitution, or whether they formed a normal provided and accordance of the provision was that they came in under the compton constitution, or whether they came in under the compton constitution, or whether they came in under the compton constitution, or whether they came in under the compton constitution, or whether they came in under the compton constitution, or whether they came in under the compton constitution, or whether they came in under the compton constitution, or whether they came in under the compton constitution, or whether they came in under the compton constitution, or whether they came in under the compton constitution, or whether they came in under the compton constitution, or whether there was a majority of Americans in that Legislature, provided they were fairly and hon eatly elected? If the people of Kansas desired a political party in Kansas, two representing the Federal Government, two representing the Federal Government in the form of the Federal Government in the foundation of the Federal Government in the foundation of the Federal Government in the foundation of the Federal Government in t same amount of land, whether they came in under the Lecompton constitution, or whether they formed a new constitution.

If they desired a Legislature purely Democratical they desired and they have a superior they have a superior they desired and they have a superior they are they have a superior they desired and they have a superior they are the are they are the

I have proposed it over and over again. I am willing to agree to it and make it applicable to Kansas if you will make it a general rule.

But, sir, it is one thing to adopt that rule as a general rule and adhere to it in all eases, and it different character of institutions that may be a territory may come in with one kind of constiwith forty thousand, and with a different one side and a penalty on the other. Sir, I desire no personal triumph. I have not stood here for five months in conflict with men with whom I have acted a whole lifetime, struggling for a personal triumph. sonal triumph. Hence, because they have made eoncessions, that fact ought not to change my course, unless those concessions are of such a some form of bill, could have been agreed upon nature as to give me the principles for which I which would harmonize and quiet the country,

If the object was to prove that the Lecompton the principle for which I have contended is fairly carried out. The position, and the sole position unconditionally, or else that four States upon which I have stood in this whole controver- would secede from the Union. It was then to he sy, has been that the people of Kansas and of unconditional admission. After a while, upon each other Territory, in forming a constitution for reflection, upon investigation, the conclusion was admission into the Union as a state, should be arrived at that it was wise to put a clause in the left perfectly free to form and mould their domes-bill in some way recognizing the right of the tic institutions and organic act in their own way, people of that State to change their constitution without coercion on the one side, or any impropheror 1864, although, according to my construction of its terms, it prohibited any change until that period. Here was a concession made, a mission of the Lecompton constitution as brings great concession, a concession which I never it fairly within that principle? In terms, the could have made, on which ever side of the question I may have been, for the reason that I do not believe that Congress have any right to alter or construe authoritatively a State constitu-

It was not satisfactory to me to have Congress. pursuance of the recommendation of the President, intervene and recognize, by any implica tion, the right of the people to change their State into the Union under the Lecompton constitution. Constitution in a manner different from that pre Hence it has been urged in one portion of the Union that this is a submission of the constitution that this is a submission of the constitution, and in another portion that it is not. We are to be told that submission is popular sovereignty was their act and deed; if it embodied their will; in case action, and it could be a submission in a manner different from that pre scribed in the instrument itself. I deny the right of the constitution of a State. If the constitution was their act and deed; if it embodied their will; in case action and the proposed in the instrument itself. I deny the right of the instrument itself. I deny the right of the instrument itself. I deny the right of the constitution of a State. If the constitution of a State. If the constitution of a State is a submission of the constitution of a State. If the constitution of a State is a submission of the constitution of a State is a it was sacred, and it ought not to be touched by Congress in any respect whatever, except to re-Sir, I had hoped that when we came finally to adjust this question, we should have been able to ally. That concession was made; but still it did employ language so clear, so unequivocal, that not reach the point which I had felt it my duty there would have been no room for doubt as to to make. It did not come to my principle. I do what was meant, and what the line of policy was not claim that Senators are under any more oblito the future. Are these persons left free to take or reject the Lecompton constitution? If they I claim the right to determine for myself, accordthe Union.

Sir, I have no special objection to the land grant as it is. I think it is a fair one, and if they lad put this further addition, that if they refused to the land distance is the land grant as it is. I think it is a fair one, and if they lad put this further addition, that if they refused to the land distance is the land grant as it is. I think it is a fair one, and if they lad put this further addition, that if they refused the land grant, they are compelled to take in the land grant, they are compelled to take in the land grant, they are compelled to take in the land grant, they are compelled to take in the land grant, they are out of the land grant and my own judgment and my own conscience, what my duty is to a great fundamental principle; and if Senators cannot bring the bill within the principle, I must exercise my right and duty of dissenting from it. the land grant, they might proceed to form a new constitution, and that they should then have the same amount of lands, there would have

Next came the declaration that the free-State Legislature was elected; and hence, if Kansas was forced into the Union with a pro-slavery constitution, against the will of her people, it would not last long, for the reason that there was a free-State Legislature, who would immediately take steps to change it, and abolish slavery. That argument did not address itself favorably to my judgment, for the reason that it did not affect the principle involved. What difference did it make, so far as the principle was concerned, whether there was a majority of free State men, or a ma-jority of pro-slavery men in that Legislature?—

There was no doubt, no uncertainty left in regard to what were to be their rights under the land grant, whether they took the one constitution and, Sir, it was the duty of Mr. Calhoun to declare those elected who had received a majority of submission, without any penalties on the one side or any bounty or special privilege on the other to influence their action. In this view of the case, I am not able to arrive at the conclusion that this principle was. Shall that people be left perfectly and entirely free to form and regulate their own institutions in their own way?

This committee of conference provide for a question of submission to the people, but what do they submit? The Chairman of that committee of conference, the Senator from Missouri (Mr. Green) has informed you that the constitution is not submitted; the Senator from Virginia, (Mr. is a very different, and a very distinct thing, to provide that if they will take this constitution, which the people have shown that they abhor, they may come in with forty thousand needs to the shown that they abhor, and I believe hoth of them have additionally and that they are not the shown that they abhor, they may come in with forty thousand needs to the shown that they are not the shown the shown that they are not the shown that they are not the shown that th they may come in with forty thousand people, but ed that they would not vote for the bill if the if they do not, they shall stay out until they get constitution was submitted. I understand that ninety thousand, thus discriminating between the similar declarations have been made in the other House of Congress by the members of the comformed. I submit the question whether it is not mittee of conference there, showing that that was

Then, if the constitution is not submitted: if kind of constitution, not until she gets ninety the people are not allowed to vote for it or against thousand, or one hundred and twenty thousand? it, freely, without a bounty on the one side or a It is intervention with inducements to control the penalty on the other, how can it be said that it It is intervention with a bounty on the comes within that great principle of popular sov-

It is no answer to this objection to tell me that cognize the right of Congress to intervene and control the decision that the people make on this their concessions are, if they have not conceded the principles for which I contend, I cannot take The great principle for which we have all contended, in the language of the Kansas Nebraska act, is to leave "the people perfectly free to form whether these concessions are wright or wrong, whether they are wise or unwise. It is enough act, is to leave "the people perfectly free to form and regulate their domestic institutions in their own way, subject only to the constitution of the United States." If you hold out large grants of been clearly and distinctly recognized in this offered by me; and I repeat now that, if you will bill. I dislike the indirection by which the submative vote, and the terror of staying out of the mission is proposed to be made-made to depend Union to influence the negative vote, I submit on a land grant. In order to compel the peothe question, whether that people are left perfect plc of Kansas to reject the Lecompton constitution, you compel them to vote against a land not? I insist that where there are inducements grant, that every man, woman and child in the on one side and penalties on the other, there is no freedom of election. The election must low them to take the land grant unless they take be free. The electors must be left unhiased by the constitution with it, and you will not allow the action of the government, if you are going them to proceed immediately and make a new to have fair elections and a fair decision.

For these reasons I do not think that this bill the same land grant, if they reject this. If you brings the question within that principle which I have held dear, and in defense of which I have tionable in its equivocal features, I could and gether, and the other to strike out the limitation as to the population. Then the simple question presented to the people would be, will you come endorsing the course of the delegation in Congress upon this question. In one county the opposite policy you see sustained. That was the contry of Lake, a county where the Republicans have an overwhelming majority—perhaps ten or wanted to leave the laws to law whether he, as a Southern man, desires to see the principles of congressional intervention to con-control and influence the voting of the people car ried out hereafter in the admission of new States' The time may come when there will be an anti lion for a slave State, or allowing a free State to come in with a population of forty thousand, and providing that a slave State shall not come in without ninety thousand. Would our southern friends regard that as being a fair interpretation of the principles of popular ereignty? Would they not say that was the most dangerous and unconstitutional system of intervention that was ever devised, when the Federal Government steps into the Territories, and by its hounties on one side, and its penalties on the other, attemps to influence and control the action of the people?

I do not regard this as a matter of much consequence to Kansas; I do not believe there is enough in this hounty, or enough in this penal; to exercise any material influence upon the peo ple of Kansas in this election; but it involves the great fundamental principle, it involves the principle of freedom of election, and it involves the great principle of self-government, upon which our institutions rest. With all the anxiety tha: I have had to be able to arrive to a conclusion in harmony with the overwhelming majority of my political friends in Congress, I could not bring my judgment or conscience to the conclusion that this was a fair, impartial, and equal application of the principle.

There is another objection to this propositon

one that looks badly upon its face. I take it for granted that it was intended to be fair and just but it gives cause for apprehension, and will generate suspicion among the people that the election under it will not be, and cannot be fair. I allude to the provision as to the board of commission-

By the bill framed by the eminent Senator from Kentucky, and passed by the Honse of Re-presentatives, there was to be a board of four commissioners to superintend the election on the constitution; two representing the people of the Territory, being the presiding officers of the two branches of the Legislature; the other two representing the Federal Government, being the Gov-ernor and Secretary appointed by the President and the Senate. In that way, two commissioners would necessarily be of one class of politics, and the other two of another class of politics. Under that state of the case, it is not probable that unfairness would have been perpetrated in the election. Under that board, as prescribed by the Senator from Kentucky, you would have the assurance from the very law itself that one half of the judges of election would belong to one party, and one half to the other; and tha one half the clerks would belong to one, and one

But how is it when you add a fifth number to the hoard, and provide that the board shall con-It only made the bill more obnoxious to me by violating another principle equally sacred in our political system, that of the sovereignty of the States.

Next came the declaration that the free-State board? Is it not clear that if these three gentle men choose, they can have all the judges of election and all the clerks of election and all the re turning officers of one class of political faith, the same as Mr. Calhoun did at the elections which took piace on the 21st of December and the first Monday of January? Does not the change in this respect give ground for apprehension that you may have the Oxford. Shawnee, and the Deleware Crossing and Kickapoo frauds re-enacted at this election? I should have been better satisfied if it had been left as the House

Then, sir, what is my duty upon this question under this state of the case? I have but one line of duly, and that is to vote against the bill; because, in my opinion, there is not a fair submis sion to the people under such circumstances as to insure unhiased election and fair returns. I have indicated two amendments, which, if they had been made, would have enabled me to support this bill, notwithstanding other defects in it. I will indicate another. I am willing to subscribe Inder the constitution and the proposition submit deby this bill.

These various concessions could not control votes enough to carry the bill. What next? Then comes a disagreement between the two Houses of Congress. The Senate inciping way?

These various concessions could not control votes enough to carry the bill. What next? Then comes a disagreement between the two Houses of Congress. The Senate inciping way? general law. The Senator from Ohio (Mr. Pugh,) yesterday eiled me as authority for that pro vision of this bill. He referred to my report, as a provided that Kansas might proceed to form a constitution when she had the requisite popula tion, to wit: ninenty three thousand four hundred and twenty, under the present ratio. That was my judgment then of the true rule upon the sub-

He quotes also a proposition that I have brought in at this very session as a substitute for the Arizona bill, providing a general law that no Territory shall ever form a constitution and State government until it has the requisite popu lation for a member of Congress. I am for that proposition now, and if Senators will consent to any arrangement by which you can strike out the whole of this bill, and in lieu of it insert a formed. I suhmit the question whether it is not congressional intervention, when you provide that their understanding and their construction of this bill. Territory of the United States shall proceed to form a constitution and State government for admission into the Union until it has the requisite population for a member of Congress, according to the existing Federal ratio, I will give it my support.

But, sir, if I require it in Kansas, I wish to re quire it in other Territories; and if I am to apply that limitation to the new constitution that is to be made, I wish to apply it to the one that is in existence. I am not willing to prescribe one ratio to one kind of constitution, and another ratio to another kind. Make it uniform, and it can have my support. I have on all proper oc sas shall not come in until she has the requisite population for a member of Congress, and then say that this section is incorporated into and made part of the organic law of each of the Territories of the United States, and that none shall come for admission until they have that population, I will give it my support. In other words, Mr. President, I desire to carry out the principle of leaving the people to decide for themselves in perfect fairness. I will support no rule applicable to the North that does not ap-North. I will not intervene either for slave con stitutions or against slave constitutious by an act of Congress, holding out bounties on the one side or penalties on the other. Stand on the great principle of equality; leave each State on an exact footing with every other State; never inquire whether her institutions arc of this character or that character; never inquire whether the State is in the North or in the South, and I will stand with you and apply the rule with axact justice posite policy you see sustained. That was the connty of Lake, a county where the Republicans hard an overwhelming majority—perhaps ten or twenty to one over the Democrats, and where post-office and the custom-house, and to fill the light-houses. That one county was carried by the Lecompton men, twenty seven of them in nearly all of them by a nearly unanimous vote. That convention representing the entire State

In that there would be a perfect fairness; there would be no congressional intervention with its inducements to control the results. Or, if you wanted to leave the land grant in, why not make the one overwhelming majority—perhaps ten or twenty to one over the Democrats, and where the land grant in, why not make the other new constitution as well as the old one, as the Crittenden amendment did? Then they would get the same amount of land much the one as the other. In other words, if you wish to make this proposition fair, you must give Kansas the same land, under any new constitution she may form, as you do under this one, and you must allow her to come in with the same population under the one as under the other conscience, under the conviction that I have done and you must allow her to come in with the same population under the one as under the other con

ST. Louis, May 20. Accounts from Kansas continue to speak of outrageous robberies by Montgomery's bandits of outlaws. Several stores and the post office at Willow Springs was robbed on the 11th. A heavy robbery was also reported in different parts of Johnson county. Three hundred families are said to have been driven out of Lynn county.

Montgomery holds a captain's commission un der Lane, and it is understood his band have signed a written pledge, under which they are sworn to drive all pro-slavery men out of the Territory and to break up the land sales in July. They are also reported to have said that unless Denver withdraws the troops from Fort Scott, they will proceed to Lecompton and hang him.

WASHINGTON, May 20, M.

Messrs. Brunscombe and Winehell, the commissioners appointed at the settlers mass convention held at Topeka, Kansas, to procure a postponement of the land sales in that Territory, or provide a loan fund for the squatters, have had, company with Mr. Parrott, the delegate from Kansas, an interview with the President, who intimated his willingness to postpone the sales till October if they thought hest, but desired them to call on the Secretary of the Interior. The latter states that the policy of the Government would he to sell all the public lands possible during the present year for the purposes of revenue, but consented to defer the sales in Kansas till November 1st and 15th, when they will take place.

The commissioners will leave for New York on Friday for the purpose or securing the loans

The monthly return of the pension bureau shows that under the act of 1855, 287,876 applies tions for land warrants had been received, and 223,267 had been issued. To satisfy the warrants granted it will require 28,009,310 acres of the public lands.

Democracy and the Lecompton Test. There has been no end to the abuse and detraction which the administration Democracy of this State have heaped upon those Americans who refused to support the President in his Kansas policy. John J. Crittenden and Humphrey Marshall, two men who are as firm and loval to the interests of the South as any that ever breathed, and W. L. Underwood, one of the largest slave holders in the State, and who is known not only to be a strong pro slavery man but also a propakindred tone and sentiment, have been proclaimed to be traitors to the South, and have been denounced as Abolitionists by men who have no would be vehement and rank Aholitionists them. terest by so doing. selves if such a doctrine only suited the localities in which they live. These same Southern Democratic papers have denounced Stephen A. Doug ias, Walker, Forney, and other distinguished Northern Democrats for the same cause-their hardihood in resisting the encroachments of the Executive and the Congress upon the rights of the people. These men have been called Abo litionists, and it has been repeatedly said in this State that Kentucky should place her armed heel upon them, simply because they desired that the people of Kansas should have an opportunity of deciding what should be their organic law. But even while Southern Democrats denounce John J. Crittenden and Humphrey Marshall for having as they allege, betrayed the South, they forget, or at least they fail to announce, that Henry A. Wise of Virginia holds identically the same position and has proclaimed and defended it more pertinacionsly and fiercely than any man in the country. And yet this does not in their opinion impair the Democracy of Wise, nor does it prevent him from being as formerly the chosen ehampion of Southern rights. If any one were to charge Wise with Abolitiouism, for agreeing with Crittenden, these same Southern Democrats South, the South." But hear the Enquirer: would be the first to denounce him as a liar and, New Orleans Delta and the New Orleans Courier, which have been and are the staunchest proslavery papers in the country, but which occupy identically the position as that assumed by For

tucky about Lecompton, after all the denunciation of Crittenden on account of his substitute, after all the abuse of McKee on account of his fessed to defer. Under these circumstances, we endorsement of Crittenden, and after every en. agreed with a large number of the Democratic deavor to make the Lecompton Constitution the test question in the race for the Clerkship of the Court of Appeals,-after all this, the Democratic Convention which met at Lebanon to nomi nate a candidate for Judge of the Court of Ap peals received into full fellowship John H. Harney, the editor of the Louisville Democrat, and who has been denounced from one end of the State to the other as a rank Black Republican. Mr. Harney took bolder ground, perhaps, than any man in Kentucky against the Lecompton Constitution, and gallantly took his stand by the side of Crittenden and Marshall, in what these Democratic editors were pleased to denounce as a coalition with Abolitionism, but it does not prevent him from taking a prominent part in a Demacratic nominating Convention. Joshua F. Bullitt is also known to be an anti Lecompton man, and yet he too figured conspicuously among the Democrats who nominated Wood. But the strangest circumstance of all is that this Democratic Convention adjourned without passing any resolutions either endorsing or repudiating the President's course. Now why was this? It was because the Democracy knew that it would create a serious split in their ranks, and they preferred to unite upon the spoils even if they do divide upon principles afterwards. It would have proved a dangerous experiment for an ad-Convention a resolution endorsing the Kansas policy of the President, as it would have exclud ed Harney, Bullitt, and many other influential Democrats who could not conscientiously have supported it. It would have produced a discus sion, and a discussion of this question among members of their own party is what Southern Democratic leaders are especially anxious to avoid. It requires no great power of penetration to see that the Lecomptonites have been most shamefully bullied in the Lebanon Convention. The anti-Lecomptonites, although not in the majority, still mustered so strongly that the friends of the administration dared not repudiate them, even though their organs have repeatedly branded them as Aholitionists. Without the aid of those Democrats who agree with Crittenden and repudiate the President, the Democracy would not have the least possible chance of success. They are obliged to depend for victory

After all the fuss which has been made in Ken

They draw to that Ira Stout and his sister, Mrs. Littles, occutheir bosoms these anti-Lecompton Democrats of pied at times the same hed: the South, just as they embrace John Van Buren, Dix, Cochrane, and hosts of other free soil Dem crats in the North. They use questions of State and national policy as so many hobbies on which to ride into office, and do not desire office for the sake of carrying out certain principles of government. The principle, or rather the want of principle, is used by them as the stepping stone—

I die in as the means by which to obtain political ad Lecompton question is said by Locofoco organs to be the vital question before the people of Kenupon it is a traitor to the best interests of Ken them tucky and should be promptly crushed, that all who do not eudorse the President are Abolitionists and enemies of the country. Aud yet the Democracy meet in solemn assembly to make a party nomination and to express their party views, and fail to express any opinion whatever upon a question which they appear to deem so important. And they admit into Convention and meet as brothers, men who have opposed the policy assumed hy Southern Democrats in Con gress, and who have thus, to use the favorite argument of the Lexington Statesman, "deprived the South of the moral prestige of an undivided front." We think we are justified, then, in supposing that it is really of no importance to the Democracy what may be the opinions of any one upon the Lecompton Constitution, if Democrats are permitted to slip into all the offices. When it is necessary to get an office, the Democracy will endorse the President straight out; where it | Saxon race in Kentucky. Kentucky is celebrat is necessary to unite both wings of the divided ed for her hospitality, but we hardly think that it Democracy, they will ignore the question; and has ever been carried quite so far in this State as when it will avail them, they will turn against the Dutch in New York practice it. > The Richmond Enquirer vs. the President.

> The Richmond Enquirer, that staunch old States rights paper, blows a blast from its bugle as cheerily as any that have been sent forth by Forney or any of the opponents of the present administration. It is well known that this paper did more towards the success of Buchanan in the South than any other organ of the Democracy, but it has the courage and independence to re buke him as soon as he has exhibited an inclination to return to his old Federal positions. Of course the Enquirer will be set down among the Abolitionists, and we fear that hefore long every respectable journal in the South will be in the same category, leaving the Administration to be defended only by a few mushroom concerns stand by the Enquirer, the New Orleans Delta, and other Southern pro-slavery Democratic papers in this issue, and let the whipper-snappers charge Abolitionism upon us to their hearts' content. We, for one, are not to be frightened from the advocacy of the right and of justice by every demagogue who chooses to raise the err of "the

"We have been utterly opposed to the immeposing the President and ad of Kansas, under the so called Constitution vocating the Crittenden substitute, they fail to framed at Lecompton, in November last. We although legitimately assembled, resorted to a means of submission of the Constitution en tirely at variance with republican principle sanctioned by no precedent of republican history. We cannot recognize that this Constitution has either been formally or virtually adopted, either by the Convention at Lecompton or the people of Kansas. We consider that the mode of submission to, was intended to defeat, and did defeat, all fair expression of that popular will to which the schedule of submission proparty, by insisting that a Constitution, framed, should also be legally adopted, before it could be imposed by Congressional action upon a sovereign people; that the Lecompton Constitu on should be submitted to a full, fair, free sub mission to the people, who should thus be enabled to elect its ratification or rejection.

"This position has been virtually admitted by Houses of Congress, approving the report of a Conference committee. While we would have sas, who, if they lost their senses ouce, have preferred a more direct mode of submission, are willing to acquiesce in any submission which effectually enables the people of the Territory to regulate their domestic institutions in their But the mode of submission adopted by Congress involves one feature of Congressional intervention which does not meet even our qualified ap-proval. Congress has agreed to admit Kansas immediately as a State, upon condition that the people shall ratify the Lecompton Constitution; but refuses to admit the State under any other Constitution, until she shall have attained a certain in crease of population. We do not recognize the competency of Congress thus to interfere in favor of the adoption of one particular form of organic

Douglas' Speech .- In another column we puh lish the speech of the Seuator from Illiuois on the English bill. Whatever may have been our former opinions of Mr. Douglas as a statesman, they have been considerably modified by the manly, resolute, and independent position he has taken and adhered to on this Lecompton question .venturous Democrat to have introduced into that Every effort has been made to bully, to threaten, ark, which I do now, as I always have done to coax and to wheedle him into submission, hut utterly disregard and despise; from no embarrass all alike have failed. He has planted himself upon a rock, and thus far has stood firm against the storms which have raged around him. We never doubted Douglas' ability, and are now more fully couvinced of it than ever. We hope that every one who receives this paper will not prepared only read the speech hut induce their neighbors debts, and lived many years among you, au honto do likewise. THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION.—The Locofoco Convention at Lehanon yesterday nominated Hen. ry C. Wood, of Green county, asits candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals.

"We cannot help thinking that great injustice their principles so that their votes are given to the thing which would bear any such construction, or incinuation. HERBERT. from singing or spelling school, or church, and to bundle," i. e. to "turn in" in the same bed together, was as much a matter of course, as for down easters to "sit up and "spark it" until coek crow in the morning. Strangers to the custom were always urged as a matter of course, by the father and mother of the girl, to comply with it, and the instances are rare indeed where any im moral consequences resulted from it.'

Of course we know that the custom of "Bund ling" was long in vogue among the Dutch of o'clock. New York, and of course we don't think that any "immoral consequences" often resulted from un married lovers and even strangers of the two sexes going to bed together. Such a habit might be indulged in with propriety among the Dutch of New York, but enstorn in this latitude has very wisely dispensed with it. It would be a very dangerous experiment to try among the hot blooded young men and women of the Anglo we have the utmost confidence in the immacuprayer, "Lord deliver us from temptation."

The Kansas Press on the English Bill. All the anti-Administration papers-and there are but few not of this sort-denounce the English bribe. As a specimen, we quote:

[From the Lawrence Republican, May 6.] Lecompton is therefore passed-provided the people of Kansas vote to accept a proffered land grab; otherwise we remain in a Territorial contion until we have 93,000 inhabitants. Of course we will remain a Territory!

[From the Leavenworth Ledger, May 7th.] The Government does not own land enough to uy up the people of Kansas. The originators and abettors of the movement are boasting that the inhabitants of this Territory would barter their hopes in this life and the next for a grab at Unele Sam's domain. What a pitiable mistake!

[From the Leavenworth Times, May 6th.] Our duty, as it appears to us, is plain though it be painful. With that devotion and magnanium ity characteristic of the Free State party, we should drop all thought of existing State govern ments, go, like one man, into the election unde ments. go, like one man, iuto the whom they can bribe to see as they do. We will the English bill, vote the land bribe, with its for the county of Franklin. March 17-te. [From the Leavenworth City Ledger, May 6th.] We have too much confidence in the people of Kansas to believe that they will accept a proposition. We believe that they would rather remain a Territory eternally, than to come into caitiff. While they denounce Forney as an diate admission to the Union of the Territory conditions. What! be bought up like a flock of the Union under such insulting and degrading sheep? Sacrifice our principles, for the triumph of which we have been so carnestly contending, or old customers on TIME. They solicit an early mark the course of the Richmond Enquirer, the still believe that the Constitutional Convention, for a fine slice of the public lauds? Away with examination. such an idea!

[From the Quindaro Chindowan, May sth.] The fiat of the people is just as surely procounced as though it had been heralded by truin pet voices from every hill-top that diversifies our beautiful prairies. No new manifesto need be made. The unfair submission of the Lecompto Constitution will not shield it; the people will strike through the ordinance to bury the lance of their just indignation deep in the heart of the

The Kansas correspondent of the St. Louis 'Republican" also says:

"It is now pretty much settled that the Demo crats of Kansas are to vote, unite with the servative, anti-nigger free soilers, and kill the Leavenworth bastard on the 18th inst. er it good policy, and the prospect is that the thing will be overwhelmingly defeated, as it ought to be. There is almost as much excite the late compromise act, passed by the two ment on this topic as there used to be on Lecomp found and got them back again."

THE DEATH OF II. W. HERBERT .- The death of Mr. Herbert, by his own hand, was mentioned of SPRING MILLINERY, which she will sell in our paper of vesterday, together with some particulars. He left two letters-one addressed to the press of the United States, and one to the coroner of New York. The former contains nothing of interest. The latter throws some light on his motives for the snicide, and we give it:

GLASGOW, Kr., December 23, 1857.

Dear Sir.:—Having disposed of our Printing Office in Elizabethiowa, Ky., and removed to Glasgow with the view of permanently locating we purpose commencing the publication of a newspaper soutetime during the month of February, to be entitled "THE GLASGOW FREE PRESS." It will be devoted to General Literature, Politics, Agricalture, the Arts and sciences, News, and especially to the promotion and advancement of the local and general interests of the town and county, and those adjacent. No pains or exertion on our part will be intermitted to secure due consideration for all local enterprises, that may be calculated to advance the general weal of the community.

An earnesteffort will be made to render it a valuable family newspaper, acceptable to all parties, combining a variety of interesting and instructive subjects in its columns. Having had considerable experience in the business, and being practically familiar with its mechanical duties, we include the hope that we shall be enabled to subserve to some extent, the intorests to which the "Free Pagess" will be dedicated.

Anterican Politics at the present time, may be said very justly, to be in a chrysalis state. We do not design, in this Prospectus, to enter the domain of speculation. It is not necessary to the present purpose, or to define our political position. This may be defined very briefly. We not conscientiously opposed to the practices and the precepts of Modern Bemocracy. We regard the bemocratic party, as now constituted, essentially an alien party; and consider its aims and purposes, as avowed by its organs, practiced by its leaders, and developed in the present administration, preguant with evilto the Union, in violation of the plain injunctions of the early fathers, and disastrous to American Nationaldy. We recognize in the "Address of the American Party," promulgated at the Louisville Convention, a political creek, caimently national, eminently conservative, and peculiarly adapted to present exigencies. We believe al opinions.

We invoke, in aid our enterprise, the support and patronage of the citizens of Barren and surrounding counties, and especially those whose opinions may harmonize with the general views berein expressed.

We send you this errealar, hoping that you may feel inclined to give as the benefit of your influence, in procuring a list of subscribers in your locality, by the list day of February, 1859. day of February, Jede.

The Beautiful Canadian Trotting Stallion

DEFIANCE

WILL MAKE HIS FIRST SEASON IN THE United States, at my farm in Franklin county, eight miles from Frankfort, on the turnpike roual leading to Georgetown, at the very to price of TEN DOLLARS the senson, with fifty cents the groun, payable within the season which has commenced, and will expire on the 1st of July.

I will furnish pasturage gratis to mares from a distance, without being responsible for accidents or escapes.

DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE.

DESCRIPTION AND PEDITIFIED.

DEFIANCE is a rich mnhogony bay; 15½ hands higb; with heavy black mane and tail; possessing the boae; great length, and oxtraordinary gayety; and presenting in his appearance, a remarkable combination of the thorough bred with the harness horse. It was streed by old Defauce, who was the sire of Lady Moscow, and innumerable other trotting celebrities. His dam, (Maillda Minks,) herself very celebrated both for trotting and pacing, was a Casadian mare of both for trotting and pacing, was a Casadian mare of the most select breed. Old Defiance was by Cock of the Rock; he by Buroc; he by old Messenger. Cock of the Rock was full brother in blood to American Eclipse.

DEFIANCE was purchased from his breeder in Cacada last fall as a stock horse, both on account of his great perfection of form, color, gayety, natural speed, and graceful nction, and for the high character and reputation of the stock from which he is both directly and remotely descended. He was exhibited in the fastring at the Baltimore Fair, six weeks after his arrival, and, without any trailing, went his mile in a minutes 46 seconds, taking the accond premium. I am standing lilm at this low rate on ecount of the hard times, with the purpose of laducing farmers generally to improve the character of the horse stock of the core stry, being well assured that ao horse in the State will contribute more to that end.
